WEDDING

Is Invalid, Says Brazilian in Reply to Wife's Suit for Divorce.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 29.—A new and sensational development in the marital entanglement of the Dahne family came when, in an amended answer, filed by Dr. Eugenio Dahne, Brazilian commissioner to the exposition, in his wife's divorce suit, the assertion was made that their marriage ceremony here is not binding because Dr. Dahne had a wife living at the time.

The Dahne domestic trouble was aired a few weeks ago, when Mrs. Dahne, whose age is about half that of her husband, filed suit for divorce, alleging cruelty. The suit was now following Dr. Dahne's return from Brazil, where he went in the interest of the Brazilian exhibit at the exposition. Mrs. Dahne, holding the title deed to the family home at Point Loma, refused to permit him on the place. A recent disturbance between Dr. Dahne and a guard hired by Mrs. Dahne resulted in the arrest of both.

In the amended complaint filed recently, it is alleged that Dr. Dahne "informed the defendant that he had another wife living to whom he had been legally married in the state of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, but that the defendant, knowing this plaintiff was a married man at that time, insisted that he go through with her the marriage ceremony herein referred to; that this plaintiff is now informed by his attorney that the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant was invalid and void."

It also is recited in the complaint that Dahne was not well versed in the American code and that his residence continues to be the city of Porto Alegre, Brazil.

MILK SAVES A DAIRY BARN FROM BAD FIRE.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 29.—Milk has proved just as efficacious as water in extinguishing a fire, even if it is a bit more expensive. The dairy barn of A. M. Wasson, near Tyrone, was struck by lightning Friday evening. Mrs. Wasson and her two sons, Alton and Robert, were in the building milking.

Flames followed the bolt, a delay would have doomed the structure. A dozen gallons of milk, the result of the day's milking, was at hand. The milk saved the barn and stock.

GOES TO SLEEP IN BUGGY; WAKENS ON ENGINE PILOT.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 29.—James Torre, a young farmer, awoke rather suddenly some time after midnight recently and found himself perched precariously on the pilot of a Big Four engine, whizzing along at a big four engine. The last thing he had remembered was wrapping the lines about the whip and telling old Dobbin to go home. He had been to "her" house.

The train struck the buggy squarely, killing the horse, smashing the rig to splinters and depositing him on the pilot unhurt.
